MINI BIKES AND HORSES MAKING THEM MAD

Mini bikes and horses have been the cause of yet another spate of complaints to Altona Council by irate ratepayers.

Council has received a petition from 23 residents in the Bell Avenue — Purnell Street area in Altona West who claim that mini bike riders, motor cyclists and drivers of "all sorts of cars" are using land owned by Steadmans and a small strip of council-owned land as a racecourse, vehicle testing ground and obstacle course.

And a Grieve Parade resident has written a further letter to council complaining of young people riding horses and mini bikes on the Grieve Parade median strip, north of Altona High School

'Serious safety hazard'

The petitioners in the Bell Avenue-Purnell Street area claim that the mini bikes and cars in the area are objectionable for at least three reasons — noise, abuse of the land by vehicles causing erosion and the fact that they are a serious safety hazard.

They claim that it is now impossible to enjoy a quiet weekend or evening in the area, shift workers cannot get rest or sleep after work and several housewives are in a state of distress and nervous strain.

They have told council the police have responded promptly to requests for assistance but as soon as they depart, the noise starts again.

The petitioners have asked council to take immediate action to ensure the area is no longer used by any type of vehicle and a seven day a week contact be available for complaints so that immediate corrective action can be taken.

Council has also been asked to consider compelling the owners of the land to fence it off.

Mrs. M. M. Brown, the Grieve Parade resident who complained to council for the second time, wrote:

"Some three months ago I wrote to you concerning the weekly weekend menace the residents of Grieve Parade have to endure.

"To date absolutely nothing appears to have been done.

"In fact the intrusion of mini bikes and horses gets progressively worse.

"On Sunday, October 22, the first of six mini bikes was ridden up Grieve Parade at 8 a.m. The noise continued without abatement for the rest of the day.

"The first horses appeared about 9 a.m. and they continued also until dusk. This occurred on Saturday too.

"The values of the properties in this area are fast becoming less as this nuisance gets worse.

"The horse manure is dropped on the road and it is impossible to avoid it so it gets carried on to one's own premises.

"Why should the people of this one area be put to so much inconvenience for the sake of these people who hire out these horses at the weekend?

"These people do not pay our rates."

Commenting on the letter from Mrs. Brown, town clerk, Mr. Syd Fell, said he had personally visited Mrs. Brown on a Sunday morning to find out the extent of the problem.

He had spoken to the proprietor of a nearby riding school asking him to request people to ride their horses in the paddock he was leasing.

SWIMMING, SQUASH FOR PIER STREET

Developers have approached Altona Council with plans for a commercial swimming centre and squash courts on the west-side of Pier Street, opposite the Kiema Press building.

Following a recent general purposes committee meeting of council, the applicants have been advised to carry out the necessary advertising procedure, notify all adjoining property owners and place a sign on the property within four feet of the Pier Street frontage for the required term.

The developers propose to build a 25-metre swimming pool, a learners' pool and three squash courts.

Provision has also been made for nine additional car parking spaces, should council require this additional parking when the building is in operation.

Original preliminary plans submitted by the developers in September were deferred by council and the developers were asked to submit revised plans.

The revised plans show that no building will be built within 20 feet of the Pier Street frontage.

WSMA meets

The next meeting of the Western Suburbs Municipal Association Pollution and Environmental Committee will be held on Thursday, November 16.

It will be in the Footscray Town Hall starting at 8 p.m.

Scouting sport

Gellibrand District Scouts' Association will hold their Annual Athletic Sports, at Carbon Black Oval, Millers Road, North Altona, on Sunday, November 19, at 2 p.m.

Groups from Altona, Newport, Williamstown, Werribee, Laverton and Hoppers Crossing will be competing. Admission will be 10 cents for adults and 5 cents for children. Afternoon tea and refreshments will also be available.

THEY ALL CAME PREPARED

Power restrictions didn't present any problems to the third Altona Scout Group when they met at the PRA Auditorium — the boys came prepared with gas lanterns to illuminate the hall.

The committee for the 3rd Altona Group was presented with a cheque for $300 by Mr. H. C. Hunt, manager of Petroleum Refineries to assist the group with their scout hall building programme.

The president of the committee, Mr. B. Orchard, accepted the cheque and thanked Mr. Hunt for the use of the PRA auditorium since the hall they had previously occupied was burnt down in September, 1971.

The new scout hall will be built on land granted by the Altona City Council in Cooper Reserve.

The building is expected to cost $2300.

Senior scout G. Colla presented Mr. Hunt with a group scarf. Mr. Hunt has been associated with the boy scout movement for many years and in many countries.

In the picture, Mr. H. C. Hunt is shown presenting the committee of the 3rd Altona Scout group with a cheque for $300. It was accepted by the president, Mr. B. Orchard.

A NEW BRANCH FOR EX-GUIDERS

A division of the Trefoil Guild will be opened in the McKay Girl Guide area.

The Trefoil Guild is an organisation made up of women who at some time have been connected with the Girl Guide Movement.

The new division will be formed at a meeting at 32 Darnley Street, Maidstone on Tuesday, November 21.

The organisation covers any age group, former Local Association Members, former guides and guiders... in fact, anyone who has at some time taken the Guide Promise and become a member of the Guide Movement either in Australia or overseas.

Next Tuesday's meeting is open to all interested.

Hello Girls,
With minds so busy now thinking of gift giving I'm finding some confused when the choice comes to perfumes.

Firstly, it is only fair to your nose — and the manufacturer that you only try three, four at the most, at one time. Our nostrils cannot cope with the aroma of more without utter confusion.

Then there is the style in which you think the perfume will be worn.

For example, although it seems the most expensive, the perfume, or extract, is in the smallest bottle, but so little is needed to be used and the fragrance given off lasts far longer than perfume in any other form. It is the most potent form of the fragrance.

Next comes skin perfume, this is slightly less concentrated, in larger amounts, often in spray form nowadays.

Toilet water follows in potency, coming very close is the Cologne which is an even more diluted form of perfume (not to be confused with eau-de-cologne, a special blend of citrus oils) but you will find Cologne sometimes named so.

Colognes are good as "splash" perfume in summer months, try adding a little to baby oil and applying bodily. Keeps skin smooth and fragrant.

Pots of cream perfume, or jars of creamy perfume are quite popular these days too. Easy to carry in handbags for use after the first few hours of application have worn low.

Body lotion is a mild way to apply your scents, or again, there are bath essence, bath oil, bubble bath, cubes, foam, talc or dusting powder or, of course, soap.

Here are a few ways to give pleasure, giving perfume.

Pale girly colors for Spring-Summer '72.

Wear them well with attractive makeup. Cyclax Creme Foundation in five new beige shades, soft, smooth, but not "makeup". Moisturised and with added sun screen properties. Complement in powder or natural shiny cream for your cheeks.

Translucent twin Eye Shadows — five shades and eye lighter, creamy texture pearl-like finish. Shimmery eye lighter to brighten and complement.

Color Gloss in shiny shades for moist look lips.

Bright latest fashion colors in your favorite pot shape. There is just no reason to miss out on fashion fun this Spring-Summer, thanks to Cyclax.

Police address

Some 202 Altona students were present at the recent meeting of Altona Junior Council. The students were addressed by Constables Schultz and Stone of the Public Relations section of the Victoria Police Department.

The meeting was chaired by Cr. Charlie Carlsson who holds the council portfolio for social welfare, health and education.

Top scoutmaster is to retire

A Silver Cross for gallantry... the Silver Acorn... the Bar... and an OBE for services to scouting — they all were awarded to Cr. Norman Anderson, OBE, Area Commissioner of Hoadley Area.

Cr. Anderson has announced his intention to retire from the position of Area Commissioner of Hoadley Area as from December 31, 1972.

He has been in scouting for nearly 50 years and has given a long and impressive record to Scouts, youth and the community.

Born in Moonee Ponds in 1905, his first troop was 1st Mornington. He left there in 1933. He was acting as Group Scout Master.

He was awarded the stout Silver Cross in 1927 when he was involved in the rescue of a young man who was carried out on the tide.

Cr. Anderson later joined the 3rd Essendon and in 1940 joined the Army.

He became RSM of an Artillery Survey Regiment serving in Palestine and Syria, later being commissioned in the Royal Australian Engineers and sent to Alice Springs, Darwin and New Guinea.

Cr. Anderson was selected for leadership as an Assistant District Commissioner in Brunswick. He later became District Commissioner.

His work in the Hoadley Area has been outstanding. He was an Assistant Area Commissioner for Training for

RESIDENT HITS PRA'S EXCUSE ON GAS FUMES

"A minor operational mishap" was the cause of gas fumes escaping from the Altona Petrochemical Company Ltd's plant on October 19, resulting in Altona high school closing for the day.

The general manager, Mr. D. E. McMillen, defended his company in an article published in the Star on November 1.

A resident of Altona West, Mr. L. Hanson, has written to the Star commenting on Mr. McMillen's statement.

In a letter to the editor, Mr. Hanson, of Finley Road, says:

Dear Sir,

Firstly I would ask Mr. McMillen if a smell so offensive as to drive my wife any myself out for the to escape it, even with all the windows facing his plant closed, is "very slight", would he please inform me when a serious one is developing then once more I can evacuate the area.

That this gas smell originated from his plant I have no doubt. Proceeding up Maidstone Street I got out of my car between his plant and the ASR and also Union Carbide and no smell was around. Thus to my mind as the wind was from a westerly direction it was from APC.

This was approximately 2 p.m. in the afternoon of October 19.

The persistent gassy smells from this direction are giving me serious thoughts of leaving the area completely even though it is conveniently placed to my employment.

Secondly, his statement of there being only one other complaint to the council on this day — maybe people like myself who have on several occasions rang the council offices where complaints have been cordially received only to have the same conditions appear again later have just thrown in the towel.

As a shift worker I would state further that it is my honest opinion that his plant lets this smell off on many occasions which are undetected by the people of Altona as the smell blows over Kororoit Creek Road.

It is unlikely that any of his staff suffer from these fumes as the wind and height of the distillation columns would disperse it before it reached them.

Let Mr. McMillen come to reside in our vicinity and then see if he is as quick to excuse the pollution his plant causes as readily as he does.

Stealing beauty?

The Country Roads Board should be commended for the beautification that is taking place along the Lower Yarra Freeway, but something has got to be done to stop people stealing the flowers and shrubs that have been planted along it, Cr. Bill Sommers told the recent meeting of Altona Council.

Cr. Sommers, who holds council's transport and communications portfolio, said: "Let's draw this to the attention of the CRB".

Continuing his report, Cr. Sommers said he was pleased to see that trains were crossing Millers Road at a slower speed than they had been in the past.

Let's bury McMahon, say the pensioners

A pensioner organisation has called for support in putting "the final nail in the coffin of the McMahon Government."

The Victorian Action Committee for Pension and Social Service Justice, has called social service rallies at 12.30 p.m. on Friday in eight suburban areas.

In the western suburbs, rallies will be at Footscray Park, corner of Ballarat and Geelong roads, and at Williamstown town hall, Ferguson Street.

The Trade Union Social Services Committee is named as co-sponsor of the meetings.

The sponsors call on the public to "help the needy, not the greedy."

"Action speaks louder than words," publicity material says.

"The worker of today is the pensioner of tomorrow."

"The worker of today could be the unemployed of tomorrow, or the invalid pensioner of tomorrow," it states.

The trend is to Suburban Newspapers

The one that didn't...

Newport angler Doug Clarke realised a fisherman's dream during his annual leave last month.

FAIR GO!

Altona council is concerned over the vandalism which has taken place on the recently completed little athletics track on Grant Reserve.

"It might seem hard to believe, but some people have actually been practising their golf on the sprint track," said Cr. Les Crofts at the recent council meeting.

At a recent little athletics meeting in Altona, little athletics officials and committeemen from Sunshine were full of praise and admiration for the Grant Reserve track.

He is pictured above girth — easily the largest with the 67-pound Murray fish Doug had landed.

Doug and Les shared the catch, which tasted "delicious". However, Doug still has a souvenir of his biggest catch.

It took Doug and Les 18 minutes to land the big fellow.

They had left their gaff hook in the car and their landing net was too small.

"Les pulled him up with the 9-inch spinner we used to gaff him and I put a sugar bag in his jaw and dragged him up," said Doug.

The cod was 48 inches long and had a 33-inch girth.

Joint talks on power station ?

By Sean Hanrahan

The State Electricity Commission has told the Williamstown Conservation and Town Planning Society that it will meet with society members to talk over the Newport power station issue — as long as it is not public.

In a letter to the society, SEC chairman Mr. N. R. White said it was "very doubtful that the community interest would be served" by a public debate on the issue.

This further effort by the SEC — a public authority — to keep quiet the power station issue has enraged members of the conservation society.

One member, Williams-town councillor David Linke, said, "this only indicates to us that the SEC has got something to hide."

"They know that because the society in the past has disproved so many of the SEC's arguments and forced it to change its attitudes so much, this could happen again."

The Williamstown Conservation and Town Planning Society has been fighting the Newport power station issue for nearly a year.

The society says the 1000 megawatt station will cause widespread pollution, further harm the local environment, disrupt ecology, make life difficult and unpleasant for not only local people but everyone within a 12-mile radius of the station, and help to destroy Williamstown as a pleasant area to live in.

Campaign platform

Cr. Linke, who was voted into Williamstown council on a platform of helping to stop the power station, said this week the SEC had refused three times to take part in public meetings on the issue.

"Recently we organised to go onto the current affairs programme This Week, with a representative of the SEC, but the SEC refused outright," he said.

"The reason was that it wouldn't serve any purpose... on all occasions we have sought intelligent answers to intelligent

... as long as they're private questions, the commission has either evaded the issue or given us platitudes.

"We want specific answers to specific questions, involving highly technical and serious matters."

"Cr. Linke said the SEC had accused the society of using emotionalism in its arguments."

"The SEC is saying this to avoid debate on the issue which might lead to an all-party parliamentary study of the matter," said Cr. Linke.

"This way, all the facts of the matter would come out... and the SEC cannot afford that."

"The people of Melbourne are like sheep being led to the slaughter by SEC... they must wake up to the facts of the situation before it is too late."

"The Newport power station must be stopped."

Council backs carols

Sunday, December 17, has been set as the tentative date for Carols by Candlelight in Altona this year.

In a letter to Altona Council, the secretary of Altona Municipal Band, Mr. Noel Miller requested council's assistance through Cr. Pat Burns, who holds the council portfolio for cultural activities.

Mr. Miller said it was hoped that Cr. Burns would again be able to encourage participation from other local organisations to supplement the band's contribution to the carols programme.

He said if it were possible for Cr. Burns to call a meeting of interested organisations a programme could be drawn up for a Carols by Candlelight or Pleasant Sunday Afternoon on Logan Reserve.

At the recent general purposes committee meeting of Altona Council, Cr. Les Crofts was supported by the Mayor, Cr. Harry Weaver in his motion that council support the venture and that Cr. Burns convene a meeting of local organisations to discuss this.

By Bill Ross

How difficult it is to find a decent meal at a reasonable price in Melbourne.

Last week I went to the city with my wife and sister-in-law for a small celebration. We selected a restaurant which had been given excellent reports in a newspaper review.

Entering, we were not disappointed. Lots of oak beams, plush seating and some strategically placed pewter jugs, combined to give an atmosphere of relaxed rustic simplicity.

Enthused, we joined a long queue. As we drew closer to the serving area our first impression underwent a subtle change.

This is no restaurant I thought, as I looked at a series of wide, flat basins that contained the evening's fare, but a take-away foods house.

The woman in front of me was being served by an aggravated face that had obviously spent too many hours in its present situation.

It snapped some indecipherable advice at her, and then commenced to fill a small skinny dish with food.

I watched amazed as she heaped a mountain of mushy, white rice on to the plate. For a final effect she added a couple of bits of straggly beef. "Two skiers lost on a peak," I thought.

A two dollar note flew over the counter, my compatriot held out a reluctant hand. The face, now dotted with beads of perspiration glared. Next please.

Courageously, I fronted up.

I tossed a quick glance along the row of containers — oceans of gravy, envelop, and odd fleet of meat. Feeling seasick I stared past the face to the charcoal grill.

A thin, young man in a tall white hat had somehow ignited two beautiful steaks. As flames rose three feet into the air I shut my eyes and selected a dish.

Scorched and sick I took my 'lucky dip' and ran.

A hungry fool, and not satiated by the bomb of mush I had dropped on my stomach, I turned a predatory mind towards a sweet.

A starved beast in stealthy search of prey, I cased the counter. Again understaffed and a long queue.

I waited, impatiently. At last I caught sight of the repast, cheesecakes and old sagging jellies stared out at me from their glass prison.

Stupidly, I grew affectionate for what I thought was the biggest slice of cheesecake.

I slid back the glass and released him. On wobbly legs I headed for our table. Hoping for the best, I bit down hard. What's this? A mouthful of white moss.

prevent employers passing on wage costs to the rest of the community by increasing their produce prices after a wage rise, has been granted was carried to the second reading stage in the Senate before Parliament dispersed.

The DLP Prices Limitation Bill does not in any way affect the process of Conciliation between unions and employer organisations within or outside the arbitration system.

A recent study of inflation by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development refers to collusive agreements in high productivity industries as the basic cause of inflation throughout the Western world.

The DLP Bill ensures that in Australia there shall be no price increases for a considerable length of time as a result of these agreements.

Mr. Bacon will speak at a public meeting in the Ukrainian Hall, Suspension Street, Ardeer, on Thursday, November 16, at 8 p.m. He will be supported by Mr. Alan Abolins, former president of the Victorian DLP.

Limitation Bill explained

Ever increasing prices in essential household commodities was a problem which concerned most families in the western suburbs.

Mr. John Bacon, the DLP candidate for Lalor told a DLP branch meeting in Laverton every housewife knew the benefit of any wage increase in her husband's pay envelope is soon lost through price increases.

Mr. Bacon remarked that the DLP was the only party going before the people in this election that had taken some positive action to keep prices balanced.

SUPER BIKES, CARS FOR CALDER MEET

The programme mapped out for the combined International super bike and car meeting at Calder Raceway on Sunday, December 3, promises the most concentrated day of high quality sport ever seen on an Australian track.

On the car side, there are the finals of no fewer than four current series — Repco Birthday series, F5000, Marlboro Touring cars, Glo-Weave six-cylinder touring cars, Stilwell series F3 and Formula Ford — plus a piece of nostalgia, the last series production race to the 1972 formula.

The star drivers will be out in force and will be matched, man for man, by the motor cyclists, from USA, featuring the second round of the new Pan-Pacific championship.

Heading the American group is Suzuki works rider, Ron Grant, with his TR 750 water cooled Suzuki, claimed to be the world's fastest and recently timed, during a normal race, at 173 mph.

Ron has ridden for Suzuki for eight years, has captured six world records, and has won three AFM National Championships, plus several first class awards.

Also from the USA, comes Don Emde with his fast XR 750 Harley Davidson. It is the first time one of these bikes will have raced in Australia. Don's most recent success was winning this year's classic Daytona race.

Cliff Carr, third of the U.S. group, was born in England, but lives in the States. He has been campaigning a Kawasaki in both the UK and US during the past few seasons and is a truly international rider.

From Malaysia there is rising star Sonny Soe (Suzuki). New Zealand's Geoff Perry (750 Suzuki), who is well known for his Singapore GP and American performances, and Ginger Molloy (Kawasaki 750).

Australia leads U.K. in big bike boom

With 48,860 new motorcycles registered last year Australia went slightly ahead of Great Britain, which has more than four times the population.

Motorcycle clubs in all States — there are more than 150 in Victoria and NSW — stage all kinds of events from rallies to road races.

Commenting on the boom, former Australian champion racing driver, Bill Patterson, said: "My particular interest is the youngsters who are buying mini-bikes and have nowhere to learn to ride them legally."

"More than half the total machines bought last year come into this class. A lot of them can't be registered and if they could the riders could not take them out on the road because they are too young to hold a licence."

"The temptation to sneak across the road outside home and on to a golf course or public land is understandably unbeatable to many kids. They whiz around dark streets at night and it's all illegal and very dangerous," Bill said.

"If it isn't stopped and proper places to ride provided by local council, the Government will have to come down hard on mini-bikes. And so a wonderful chance to teach youngsters to ride properly before they reach licence age would be lost.

Bill's practical efforts to organise the minis have taken the shape of a series of rallies for them, this year and last, at Owen Park scrambles, near Wallan. The 1972 series climaxes there on December 3.

Tyre research

A new smokeless incinerator—the first of its type in the world—has been installed at the Goodyear tyre manufacturing plant in Wolverhampton, England, to destroy old tyres without creating atmospheric pollution.

Goodyear also plans to use the incinerator to aid in the manufacture of new tyres.

"While it is not economically feasible for Australian tyre manufacturers to set up similar incinerators, they would prove an ideal Government facility, managing director of Goodyear Australia, Mr. John P. Miles said yesterday.

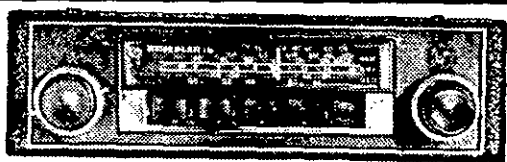

Heat developed by the specially designed incinerator is so intense that even the wire beads in tyres melt and become a part of the ash in the form of tiny globules of metal.

The incinerator heat is transferred to a boiler that provides steam power used in the tyre manufacturing process. The design of the incinerator permits destruction of old tyres without smoke, eliminating solid pollution caused by accumulation of old tyres.

Atmospheric residue created by the burning process is trapped in a cyclone tower by an electrostatic process and re-tyres melt and become a

So whether you're buying or selling a used car remember "The Age" Classifieds on these important dates.

CHURCHES COMBINE TO HOLD CONCERT

The western suburbs get a raw deal as far as talent goes. It's certain that they don't see enough of good music in concerts.

What can be done about it? The churches at Williamstown have taken a step in the right direction.

On Saturday, November 25, they have organised "A Gospel Concert" with The Pilgrims in the Williamstown High School assembly hall on the corner of Melbourne Road and Pascoe Street, at 7.45 p.m.

The Pilgrims are a music group of 15 members presenting absolutely top grade Christian music. They sing a variety of songs from quiet and thoughtful to very strong beat, exciting music.

The members of the group are extremely talented and versatile, playing a variety of instruments including trumpet, trombone, flute, piano, electric guitars, saxophone, drum and percussion.

The Pilgrims are a non-denominational group and members come from different churches in Victoria. They have been singing together for about 18 months and now have a summer uniform that looks "just great".

They are from various walks of life; some are full time music students. The music group is supported by a full committee to make for efficient running. Crowds are going to enjoy a feat of good music so get in early. Tickets are 50 cents each or $1 for a family including parents and student children. Tickets can be obtained through almost any of the local churches, or just go along and pay at the door.

Slide night

Members of the Altona Historical Society will view slides of an overseas trip at the Homestead, 128 Queen Street, Altona tonight at 8 p.m.

Members are asked to take supper with them.

An exhibition has been arranged by the State Archives in co-operation with the Latrobe Library in the Irving-Benson Hall, La Trobe Library.

Titled Free, Secular and Compulsory 100 Years of Education in Victoria 1873-1973 the exhibition runs till December 19. Hours are 10 a.m.-10 p.m. Monday to Friday, 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturday and 2 p.m.-10 p.m. Sunday

CHESS

The recently formed Altona Chess Club meets in the Homestead, Queen Street, every Wednesday night, and new members are welcome. Activities commence at 8 p.m.

Strong support is given to the club by Altona's Cr. Pat Burns who admits that he doesn't even know how to play the game.

MOVING

Mrs. S. M. Ryan has resigned as directress of Altona's Ronald Avenue Kindergarten, as she will be moving to Launching Place with her family next year.

Mrs. Ryan's resignation will take effect from the end of the year.

CROATIA'S MACKAY WILL MOVE TO SYDNEY

By LAURIE SCHWAB

Jimmy Mackay, one of the greatest players seen in Victoria, will leave Croatia next month to join Sydney club Hakoah Eastern Suburbs.

Croatia has already lost coach Michael Kiss who has returned to Sydney and striker Martin Boban who has gone back to Yugoslavia.

Croatia has been ex- transfer fee, although it is elled from the Victorian not as high as it would ocer Federation over a have been under ordinary rowd disturbance at one circumstances."

It is currently taking legal action against the de- sion.

Croatia official Frank urin told me this week:

"We are losing Jimmy Mackay because of the po- sition the federation has ut us in.

"It is no good trying to ang onto the player if here is nothing we can fer him.

"We have had talks with akoah and they have ffered us a reasonable together with strike Billy Vojtek, has formed the backbone of the Croatia team since 1968, when the club won the League title, the Dockerty Cup and the Ampol Cup.

Despite injuries, and being sidelined due to Croatia's expulsion, Mackay has turned in some brilliant performances this year.

He was the best player of the 1972 Ampol Cup, starred against Dundee and South Australia and was outshone in Australia's match against Santos in Sydney only by Ray Richards, who blotted out the legendary Pele.

Approached by a number of clubs, including Hakoah, APIA-Leichardt and South Melbourne Hellas, were made while Mackay was touring Asia with the national team.

Mackay told me this week: "Hakoah has offered me a two-year contract and a lot of money. I'm very happy with the set-up."

"I'll be sorry to leave Melbourne but the game has become stagnant here and I'm not getting any younger.

"I'll also be sorry to leave Croatia, which has been very good to me. The club has been unfairly treated and I hope it gets back into the Federation."

Mackay has been a Victorian star since joining Croatia from Airdrie in Scotland in 1965.

He has been described by national goalkeeper Jack Reilly as a "player's player" and no truer words have been spoken.

Even when Mackay seems inconspicuous on the field, he is playing highly sophisticated soccer which only the trained eye can appreciate.

Mackay cannot join Hakoah officially until December 1, when the transfer season opens.

He plans to to Sydney the following day and will arrange accommodation and employment before sending for his wife and young son.

The loss of this brilliant player is another body blow to Melbourne's ailing soccer.

His is the latest in long line of champions to move to Sydney's greener pastures.

The most recent ones have been Billy Rodgers, who moved from Melbourne to Auburn, Ray Pocock from Melbourne to Canterbury, Drago Utjesenovic from Footscray J.U.S.T. to St. George Budapest, and George Kinnell from Juventus to Western Suburbs.

Other Melbourne players who have gone to Sydney are Attila Abonyi, Stan Ackerley, George Keith, John Butler, Milan Mihailovic, Archie Blue and so on and so on.

Keilor Austria will be a new-look team by the time the 1973 Ampol Cup starts in January.

By the start of December Austria will have four new players from Germany.

One of them, Juergen Woite, a midfielder, is already here.

In early December, 22-year-old linkman or striker Werner Ney will arrive to wear the Austria colors.

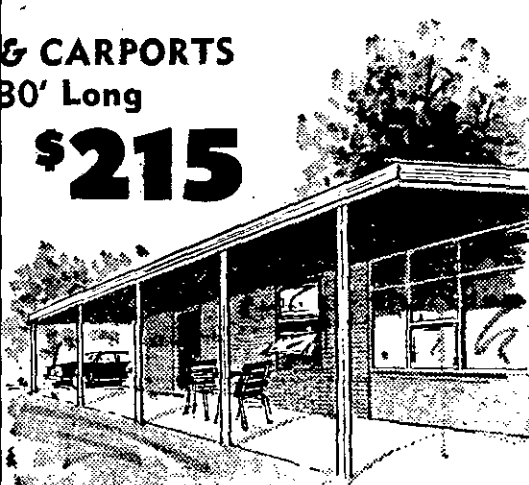

He is from Berlin amateur club TC Tegal and used to play regional league soccer for Alemannid 90.

With him will be Austria's star recruit Eckhard Ehnke, 21, a linkman from TUS Wannsee which has just dropped from the regional league to amateur ranks.

On Friday week, Austria will get Guenter Witte, a 25-year-old striker from FC Bensheim, a Frankfurt top division amateur team.

Altona says big 'no' to outside dumpers

Only Altona residents will be permitted to use the city's new tip which opens on Monday.

The tip is situated in Queen Street near Explosives Pier. It will be open Monday to Friday from 8 a.m. till 6 p.m., Saturday from 8 a.m. till 4 p.m. and Sunday from 9 a.m till 1 pm.

Altona Town Clerk, Mr. S. Fell, said yesterday, the tip will be kept locked at all other times.

Mr. Fell explained that the old tip known as "The Pines" which is east of the Working Men's Club had reached saturation point after three years.

He said that this was partially due to the fact that residents living outside the Altona area had been using the tip to dump their rubbish.

He said "We have decided that this has got to stop. Altona has limited tipping resources and we cannot afford to use them up more quickly than is necessary by being used by people other than our own residents."

The new tip will be completely fenced off.

Courtyard barbecue

Altona District Hospital Ladies' Auxiliary has obtained council permission to hold a Golden Poultry barbecue in the Civic Hall courtyard on February 21, next year.

The function will take place between 11.00 a.m. and 3.30 p.m.

Attention young anglers

Altona councillors are keen to start a competition for all the young anglers who will take their rods and lines to Cherry Lake during the summer break, this year.

Following a motion by Cr. Bill Sommers at the recent council meeting, council agreed to discuss the matter at a general purposes committee meeting.

Cr. Sommers said a competition with a prize for the young "Huckleberry Finn" who caught the biggest fish would be a novel way of attracting young anglers to the lake during the school holidays.

Cosmetics display

A cosmetics demonstration to which members of the public are invited will be held at the 2nd Altona Guide Company.

The demonstration will be at the home of Shirley Kean, 16 Hyde Street, Seaholme, at 8 p.m. on Friday this week.

It will be conducted by an expert from Mary Kay Cosmetics.

Life membership presentation

Treasurer of the Spotswood-Kingsville Returned Services League Sub-Branch, Mr. Eric Tribe has been awarded life membership of the RSL.

The badge was presented to Mr. Tribe by the Sub-Branch president, Mr. Ron Lees.
Mr. Tribe's activities included representing the sub-branch as a delegate on the RSL Fourth District Board.

Reid in great form but his side falters

Altona Bowling Club A2 crashed at Hightett last weekend, going down by 22 shots, 78-100.

B4, at home to Fitzroy, lost narrowly, 82-88. Res. 3 kept the flag flying with a convincing victory over Footscray RSL, 122-72.
Perhaps the only redeeming feature of A2's game was the continuing winning form of Theo Reid, the only undefeated skipper in the side. Theo, along with I. Douglas, I. Thorneycroft, J. Stephens, returned 23-19.
S. Carlton, 22-26. F. L. Neilsen, 17-25. J. Fisher, 16-30.
Res. 3 skipper L. Cox narrowly missed joining the 40 club, along with E. Francis, N. Grant, J. Rose, recording 39-7. W. Crofts (skip.), N. Richardson, L. Parker, P. Kelly, 32-16.
Skipper W. Inglis, F. Douglas, A. Stephenson, A. Caldwell, 31-20. T. Burke, 19-29.
B4, with only two wins to their credit this season, took yet another tumble. Skipper A. Burkhitt, J. Clarke, N. Cartwright, A. Neale, 27-16. A. Hill, 22-20. J. Carr, 22-15. M. Deegan, 11-27.
At the invitation of L. Floyd, MLA, 12 bowlers will compete against politicians at Parliament House.

AND NOW THE FINALS FOR SWIM CHAMPS

Newport Swimming Club D Grade boys remain undefeated after the last home and away round of spring inter-club events.
They will compete in the finals, starting on Saturday, November 18.
The K Grade boys also finished on top, and M Grade boys will also participate in the finals series.
The girls were almost as successful, with C and G in the finals. J. Grade were the unfortunate group to miss.
A Division No. 1 District held its first meeting at Maidstone last weekend.
Newport girls are 234 points, Maidstone 172, Broadmeadows 148; Newport boys 216, Maidstone 210 and Pascoe Vale 110.

'TOWN WINS DESPITE BAD SLUMP

Williamstown, after dismissing Balwyn for 151 to capture first innings points, slumped in the second innings and was 4/31 at the close of play.

Play resumed with Balwyn at 0/1 and it was soon afterwards that Peter Bowyer captured an opener's wicket.
At the tea interval, Balwyn were 5/92, exactly 100 behind the Williamstown total.
After the break the second over from Geoff Horsburgh brought results as Alan Harris took a great catch.
Barry McConnell was brought on from the Morris Street end of the ground and it wasn't long before he had a wicket brought off by a good catch by Robin Dyson.
They were now 7/139. In the next over from John Fowler, Horsburgh took a great catch at silly leg and the score was 8/139.
Geoff Horsburgh got the ninth wicket when the score was 150 with an lbw decision. McConnell was changed to the Bay end and he mowed a maiden.
Ees Joslin caught the last batsman off Horsburgh when the tally was 151 — 42 short of victory.
Geoff finished with the fine figures of 5/70 off 20.2 overs. Williamstown batted again, but with the result over, and were 4/31 at stumps.
Williamstown, 1st innings — 9/192 declared.
Balwyn — All out, 151.
Williamstown bowling: — Geoff Horsburgh (5/70), 20.2 overs, 4 maidens; Les Joslin (2/26), 14 overs, 8 maidens; Peter Bowyer (1/19), 6 overs; Don McKenzie (0/14), 4 overs; John Fowler (1/13), 7.3 overs, 3 maidens; Barry McConnell (1/6), 4 overs, 2 maidens.
Williamstown, 2nd innings: Alan Harris, c. 2; Barry McConnell, b. 10; Bert Park, n.o.; Graeme Coulston, lbw, 2; Don McKenzie, n.o., 8. Sundries — 1; 4 for 31.

Top grade saves face for Altona

Only the A grade team saved Altona Cricket Club from complete disgrace in the round that finished on Saturday.

The B grade team managed bowling, coupled with the time for a wicket, proved too much for first-innings defeat and the C Altona, who were bundled out for a meagre 48 runs.
Denis Garde topped the Altona score with 18.
In the A grade match, Altona resumed at 8/55 in reply to Melbourne High School Old Boys' tally of 75.
Paul Jenkins and Alec Merrill, resuming for Altona, were confident they would get the necessary runs for a first innings win off the first over they faced.
Dropped catches helped Altona and Merrill in particular, took advantage of this by taking every run possible.
Jenkins, Duff and Dare were dismissed in taking the Altona total to 9/133, at which Merrill, who was 42 not out, closed the innings.
With a lead of 63, Altona were anxious for quick wickets in a bid to take outright points.
This looked a possibility when MHSOB went to 5/50 but a 55 partnership put paid to the chances.
At stumps, MHSOB were 9/143. Altona's most successful bowler was Ken Stephenson.
The B grade team was faced with the task of having to get several quick wickets.
But Fitzroy footballer David Walls had different ideas.
After being dropped early he went on to complete an excellent century.
With good batting — mainly from Walls — Footballers were able to close the first innings at 6/185, a win by 80 runs on the first innings.
Altona, content to play out the time to avoid outright defeat, were 4/104 at stumps.
Good batting was turned on in this innings by both Frank Thomas and Brian Garde.

Club XI

The Club XI had 91 in the book and had held Newport Power House at 5/46.
But they suffered badly from dropped catches and spent most of the time in the field.
During this period, Power House were able to add another 117 runs and lose only three wickets.
Altona's second innings was interrupted several times by rain and at stumps the tally was 3/42 with Willett carrying his bat for 18.

B Grade

The B grade team was faced with the task of having to get several quick wickets.
But Fitzroy footballer David Walls had different ideas.
After being dropped early he went on to complete an excellent century.
With good batting — mainly from Walls — Footballers were able to close the first innings at 6/185, a win by 80 runs on the first innings.
Altona, content to play out the time to avoid outright defeat, were 4/104 at stumps.
Good batting was turned on in this innings by both Frank Thomas and Brian Garde.

Aths juniors take honors

Williams town Amateur Athletics Club's five junior teams took the honors on the opening day of inter-club competition at Melbourne University last weekend.

All teams recorded convincing victories.
There were many outstanding individual performances which included a win by Simon Hogan in the under 17, 1500 metres walk.
Paul Jamieson showed potential when he won the under 100 metres dash in 11.5 seconds.
Robert O'Sullivan and John Sinnott followed in 11.7 and 11.8.
In the under 14, 100 metre dash, first, second and third places went to Darrell Whinnery (13.7), Gary Hall (14.0) and Greg McKay (14.2).
Dale Barling, competing in the under 14 discus, continued his outstanding success in field game events when he won the discus with a throw of 115 feet 11 inches.
The success story of the junior's teams was not repeated by the senior teams with B, C and D teams all being defeated.
The B grade team was beaten by Old Melbourne — the team it defeated last year to become University group premiers.
Some of the better individual performances included: —
The 100 metres won by Brian Davidson (11.5) with David Jamieson (11.5) and Shane Dooley (11.8) next home for Williamstown.
Brian later went on to win the triple jump when he reached 45 ft. 2 1/2 in.
After a spell of a year, M. Lawren returned to the athletic scene and recorded his best distance in the shot put with a put of 39 feet 1 inch.
The 4 x 100 metre relay team easily defeated its opponents in the good time of 44.1 seconds.
Victorian marathon representative Terry Pheasant recorded the third best time of the day in the 1500 metres run, when he won the B grade event in 3 minutes 56 seconds.
Theo Delgrosso and Kevin Esmore followed.
On November 29 at 5 p.m., both the men's club and the women's club will conduct a social night.
Guests will include athletes who represented Australia at the Munich Olympics.
Veteran Williamstown athlete Geoff Warren, will be guest speaker.
Geoff won a silver and two bronze medals at the World Veteran Games held in Cologne, Germany, shortly after the Olympic Games.

North down

Altona North 1st XI suffered defeat to Werribee in the first innings last weekend.

North set Werribee 101 runs to catch and had the opposition 4/64 after the first day.
Bright fielding and accurate bowling had Werribee in difficulties after the resumption of play, but Werribee fought back and finished all out for 149.
Allan Peussich (6/51), John Coffey (2/22), North were all out for 105 in the second innings. J. Coffey 30, S. Hatt 22, M. McGorlick 17, K. Outen 16.
The second XI also suffered a first-innings defeat — by Telegraph. Telegraph scored 127 and 176. David Price (5/41), Jeff Spicer (2/34).
North totalled 101 and were 6/120 in their second innings. Martin Howell 56 n.o., M. Outen 21, S. Stewart 16.
The third XI, playing at home to Williamstown Colts, came back with a magnificent second-innings total to take outright points. Colts scored 99 and 76.
I. Walker (4/28), H. Hart (2/1), North's 83, best scorers were I. Walker 20, P. Hateley 22. North totalled 3/94 in their second innings. P. Hateley 36 n.o., H. Mason 35.
The Juniors recorded a draw against West Newport, 99. North just lasted with 9/75. H. Hart 14, K. Parkhill 13, Steve Burgess 12.
